<sup>1</sup>The percentage of students who defaulted on their federal student loans is called the Cohort Default Rate (CDR). It shows the percentage of this school's students who were more than 270 days (9 months) behind on their federal student loans within three years of when the first payment was due. This is the most recent CDR reported by the U.S. Department of Education.

Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

NOTICE OF STUDENT RIGHTS

1. You may cancel your contract with the school, without any penalty or obligation following your first class session or before the fifth business day or seventh calendar day, whichever is later. This policy is described in the Notice of Cancellation form that will be given to you on the first day of class. Read the Notice of Cancellation form for an explanation of your cancellation rights and responsibilities. If you have lost your Notice of Cancellation form, ask the school for a sample copy.
2. After the end of the cancellation period, you also have a right to stop school at any time and you have the right to receive a refund for the part of the course not taken. Your refund rights are described in the contract. If you have lost your contract, ask the school for a description of the refund policy.
3. If the school closes before you graduate, you may be entitled to a refund. Contact The Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education at the address and phone number printed below for information.
4. If you have any complaints, questions, or problems, which you cannot work out with the school, write or call:

The Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education
2535 Capitol Oaks Drive, Suite 400, Sacramento, CA 95795-0818
(916) 431-6959 (toll free) (888) 370-7589, www.bppe.ca.gov

STUDENT RIGHTS TO CANCEL

The student has the right to cancel the Enrollment Agreement and obtain a refund of charges (minus the registration fee), paid through attendance at the first class session (first day of classes), or the 7th day after enrollment (seven calendar days from date when enrollment agreement was signed), whichever is later.

The Notice of Cancellation shall be made in writing and submitted directly to the school. The cancellation date will be determined by the date the information is postmarked or delivered to the School Director in person. Subsequent to the initial seven-day period, the student may cancel this agreement at any time and withdraw from the school by mailing or delivering to the school Director a written notice of cancellation that is signed and dated. A withdrawal may also be initiated by the Institution due to student's academics or conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

Cancellation: If a course is canceled subsequent to a student's enrollment and before instruction in the course has begun, California College of Barbering and Cosmetology shall provide a full refund of all money paid, less registration fee.
